ONE SMALL VOICE

(Limited Edition 1000 Handnumbered CDs)

Release Date: April 8, 2010

For many fans of U.S prog/power deserves a place in the genre's top-3 along with "Operation: Mindcrime" and Crimson Glory's "Transcendence". 21 years later, Arkeyn Steel acquired the rights to re-release this US prog masterpiece featuring a total digital remaster with 3 extra songs and an extra bonus DVD of a 60-minute live performance of the band in Washington just a few months before they entered the studio to record "One Small Voice".

Mike Jackson - Keyboards
Derek Peace - Bass
Steve Benito - Vocals
Terry Gorle - Guitar
Ray Schwartz - Drums

This is the "One Small Voice" album with the added bonus of "Two Hearts" (featured only on the original Japanese issue), "The Haunting" (never released before!) and a different version of "Alone Again" that will see the light of day from Terry Gorle's archives for the very first time!!! But what is the biggest surprise is the extra bonus DVD. Inside the disc you'll find a live show from 1988 in Riviera clocking in at about 60 minutes! This recently discovered 1988 video footage is the only complete Heir Apparent concert with this legendary line-up. The show took place about 3 months after they recorded the "live in studio" demo that was released by Hellion in 2000 as the Triad CD. It's the ONLY video with Steve Benito on vocals and it has never ever been released. Audiovisual quality is fantastic and as you will hear Steve's voice was near always perfect!
