ARMAGEDDON Rev 16:16 is the longest active Cypriot Metal band with a continuous live presence since 1985. Their first name was "Heavy Duty", and back then played cover songs. In 1986, the band was renamed "Armageddon" and in 27/28 Feb 1987 opened the concert for the Greek band Spitzfire.

The band recorded its first demo (1987) with the songs: "Raiders of Steel", "Return of the King", "Armageddon" (Instrumental) and "Striking Back". Less than a year afterwards, a second demo with 8 tracks, (4 older songs, that after being performed live and having matured, were re-arranged, and recorded again): "Raiders of Steel", "Return of the King", "Rocking the Universe", "Judgment Day", "To the Unknown" (speed version), "E.K. Seventeen", "Striking Back" and "Armageddon" (Instrumental).

Their first attempt in discography was a vinyl EP in 1991 with All Records. The EP was loved by the rock and metal music fans and established Armageddon as one of the best groups of this style in Cyprus and not only.

In 1997, the band records a new song "Times of Frustration" for the collection "Blood Brothers". In 1998 "Spoils of Conflict", a mini album CD is released by City Records.

In 2014 participated in POTN festival with legendary Manila Road! "Sundown on Humanity" a full album was released in March 2014.
