It's been three years since the Greek heavy / power metalers Wardrum were formed and now they return with their third full length studio album "Messenger", which will be released via Steel Gallery Records on the 4th of November-2013. "Messenger" is a powerful album with more than 1 hour of music that invigorates the band's sound trademark with 14 heavy, ultra melodic, technical, brand new songs, taking them to a whole new level. The album was produced by Kostas Scandalis, the cover artwork was created once again by Piotr Szafranec especially for Wardrum, while the album's layout is a work of Gregory Derekenaris. "The story so far..."

During the beginning of Summer 2010, drummer Stergios Kourou decided to start Wardrum together with guitarist Kosta Vreto and bassist Kostas Scandalis, following their common urge to play some old school metal. Later, vocalist Piero Leporale from Italy joins in and the team now is complete and ready to work. On September 2010, the band started the preproduction of 10 songs and entered the recording studio. The debut album "Spadework" was produced by Kostas Scandalis and released by Steel Gallery Records on the 20th of April 2011.

"Desolation" follows the soundpath of the band's debut "Spadework" in an even more powerful production, with strong, technical songs, lyrical choruses, melodic guitar solos, technical rhythm section, directly establishing the band's skills and songwriting abilities. The album was produced again by Kostas Scandalis and released by Steel Gallery Records.
